

NOEL BARRETT ANTIQUES & AUCTIONS • EXCITING ANTIQUE TOY & AMERICANA AUCTION
SATURDAY & SUNDAY • MAY 1 & 2, 2010 • NEW HOPE, PA

Rare Marklin items include an O Gauge Grand Central Station.

The Bill Weart Collection of Japanese Boats & Cars

Cast iron toys & banks

Selected Toys from the Kathy and Athel Spilhaus Collection

Famous & Unique Pre-Darrow Monopoly Game

Unusual tin vehicle toys from various consignors

Automatons in a variety of forms will be on offer.

Among a group of store-window sales simulators is this amazing 'Farmer Duck' with a pair of ducklings - all 3 nod at passers-by.

More details on this exciting and eclectic sale will appear in the further issues of Antique Toy World and can also be found on our website: www.noelbarrett.com - catalogs will be available a month before the sale and can be ordered from our website.

INCLUDED IN THE SALE WILL BE THE AMAZING
AMERICANA & ADVERTISING COLLECTION
OF THE LATE
GORDON STARK
OF KANSAS CITY

Wood Carvings & Trade Signs

A highlight for automotive enthusiasts is a 1930's era showroom model of a Fiat Roadster - 24" long and amazing detailed.

Gordon Stark's collection encompasses all forms of early advertising - colorful lithographed tin signs and trays along with three dimensional figures, fixtures and trade signs.

More than 50 occupational shavings mugs include automotive rarities as well as undertaker's and photographer's mugs.

NOEL BARRETT
VINTAGE TOYS @ AUCTION

